

A JOB SEEKER'S PRAYER

Dear Heavenly Father,

I come before you, Dear Lord, at a time of trial in my life. I am seeking honest work so that I may feed myself and my family and continue to meet my commitments to my church and those whom I may owe.

I earnestly pray that you will bless my efforts . . .

That you will give me the strength to continue when my effort seems futile,

That you will guide me in how I spend my time and my energies,

That my idle time will be spent productively, and as a time to come closer to you, Lord, and not a time for temptation to seep into my thoughts and deeds.

That each resume I send out, each phone call I make, each interview I have will be blessed by you. That you will be by my side and direct my hand, my words, and my actions.

I pray that you will place godly people in my path that can help me, encourage me, and direct my path.

I pray that when I am blessed with choices in the workplace, I will make them in ways that will please you. And when you provide the job that I so earnestly seek, I will work to the best of the abilities you have given me, so as to glorify you, dear Lord.

I pray that you will not let me suffer financial harm as I seek your will, and I pray that you will bless the efforts of others in similar situations that also look for work. Help me, I pray, to be a good steward of what you have given me, spending wisely and sparingly in this season of my life.

I know that you have plans for me, not of harm but of peace, and I trust in you O' Lord. You are the source of my strength and all blessings. I ask that you guide me now, in your will.

In Jesus holy name I pray. Amen
